Message from the President

Dear Shareholders,

I want to extend my heartfelt thanks to everyone who participated in our Annual Meeting of Shareholders, whether in person or online. I'd like to warmly welcome Gloria Ann Karmun as a newly elected board member. We look forward to the insight and expertise she will bring to the Board.

I would also like to express my deepest gratitude to Steve Ivanoff for his many years of dedicated service as a BSNC Board Director. Steve has been a board member since 1997, and his leadership and commitment over the years has had a profound impact on our Company. We thank him for his tireless service and wish him all the best in his future endeavors. Quyaana, Steve.

As you are aware, each year, BSNC takes great pride in recognizing Elders through our Elder of the Year Awards. Honoring our Elders is a cherished tradition for Our People and BSNC, and we deeply value the guidance they provide. We are honored to include their bios in this Agluktuk and hope you will enjoy reading them.

I would also like to take a moment to celebrate Amanda Davison, 2024 Young Provider; Jessie Outwater, 2024 Youth Culture Bearer; and Kylie Evans, 2024 Tim Towarak Memorial Scholarship recipient. These young individuals exemplify the spirit of leadership, cultural preservation, and dedication to education that is crucial to the future of our Company and our communities.

I am pleased to congratulate Lucille Sands and Haven Harris on their recent promotions within the executive team. Lucille was promoted to Senior Vice President of Regional and Shareholder Services and Haven was promoted to Senior Vice President of Growth and Strategy. Congratulations to Roy Craft on being promoted to General Manager. All have made incredible contributions to BSNC, and I am confident they will continue to drive positive growth and success for our Company.

It was a joy to see so many friends and relatives at the Alaska Federation of Natives (AFN) Convention. Board Chair Roy Ashenfelter and I were pleased to present shareholders Marlene Haugen and Barret Eningowuk with AFN President's Awards. A warm congratulations to shareholder Colleen Anagick on receiving the Health Award for her work as a Tribal Doctor. Moments like these remind me of the strength and resilience of Our People when we come together, and I am continually inspired by our collective unity.

Looking ahead, we have several exciting changes that are currently being implemented, including the reorganization and the establishment of BSNC's newly formed Holding Companies. We believe these initiatives will further position us for long-term success, and we are eager to embark on this new chapter.

As always, we deeply appreciate your ongoing involvement and support, and we look forward to another successful year ahead. Quyaana!

Warmly,

BSNC Announces 2024 Awardee of the Tim Towarak Memorial Scholarship

BSNC is proud to announce shareholder Kylie Evans as the recipient of the 2024 awardee of the Beringia Settlement Trust (BST) Tim Towarak Memorial Scholarship. This $10,000 merit-based competitive scholarship is awarded annually to one high-performing student enrolled in an accredited college or university. The scholarship honors the late Tim Towarak, who worked tirelessly to advocate for Alaska Native people.

Currently a senior at the University of Alaska Fairbanks, Evans is pursuing a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice with a Minor in Psychology. She chose this field of study to align with her passion for helping her community within the Bering Straits region and her desire to support Our People. From a young age, she has been committed to advocating for others, drawing inspiration from her Inupiaq culture. She is determined to incorporate cultural values into her future career and is excited to apply what she has learned in college.

Evans, whose Inupiaq names are Maktuaya and Kupik, has deep roots in Nome, Alaska, where she spent most of her life before moving to Anchorage. She also has family ties to Teller and Shishmaref. Evans's parents are Lucille Sands and David Evans, and her maternal grandparents are Dolly Kugzruk and Glenn Carter. Her paternal grandparents are Laura and Robert Evans. Evans enjoys spending time with her family, being outdoors and engaging in subsistence activities. Her favorite pastime is walking along the beach back home and beachcombing.

Please join us in congratulating Kylie Evans as the 2024 Tim Towarak Scholarship recipient. We wish her continued success as she prepares to graduate and make a positive impact in her community.

With 28 years of experience, Nelson has helped guide BSNC, a diverse company with operations in all 50 states and internationally, to remarkable success. 2024 Young Providers and Youth Culture Bearer Awardees BSNC is pleased to announce the recipients of its 2024 Young Providers Award and Youth Culture Bearer Award. Amanda Davison of Elim received the Young Providers Award in honor of the late Ida "Taiitwiiq" Nakarak. BSNC descendant Jessie Outwater of Anchorage received the Youth Culture Bearer Award in honor of the late Agunaat Atqaaq Esther Bourdon. These awards annually recognize young people who contribute daily to the health and well-being of their families, communities and culture.

Young Provider

Amanda Davison of Elim enjoys a subsistence lifestyle year-round. She hunts seals, belugas, caribou, beavers, lynx and geese. Davison also enjoys fishing and gathering. Her favorite time of year is spring beluga hunting. She picks berries and gathers greens. To improve Elim's food security, she started a community garden to provide fresh produce for the community. She shares her bounty with her family and the Elders in her community.

Davison is a gifted artist and craftsperson. Many of the animals she hunts provide the materials for her sewing, including mukluks, mittens, hats, parkas, kuspuks, and bags. In addition to her sewing, she is also a talented painter. Her artwork often portrays the landscape of Elim and the people of her village, incorporating the flora and fauna of the Bering Strait region.

In 2022, Davison was invited to speak at the Inuit Art Society's conference in Canada, where she discussed her paintings and how she represents Alaska Native culture in her art. She has sold her paintings at Nome's annual Iditarod Craft Show and the Nome Berry Festival.

Davison was recognized in honor of BSNC shareholder Ida "Taiitwiiq" Nakarak. Taiitwiiq was born on November 7, 1928, to Carl and Agnes Takak in Shaktoolik, Alaska. She attended grade school and furthered her education by attending Unalakleet Bible School. Taiitwiiq worked as an election judge for many years. Subsistence was a way of life for her, and she would go on squirrel-hunting trips with her mom and muskrat-trapping with both her parents. She taught her children the subsistence way of life and to enjoy our Native food. Season to season, she picked greens, berries, and fished. She loved camping. As an Elder, she loved receiving her Native food.

Youth Culture Bearer

BSNC descendant Jessie Outwater embodies her Native culture. She has learned Native dance and taught herself how to skin sew and sew mukluks and learned to crimp the soles. She actively passes her knowledge on to the youth, teaching them to bead and craft.

Outwater embodies the Native value of honoring Elders by caring for her grandmother. She fishes to provide fish for her grandmother. In addition, she takes her to her medical appointments and shops and assists in other ways.

Outwater was recognized in honor of Agunaat Atqaq Esther Bourdon. Agunaat Atqaq was born on April 12, 1929, in the Tupqabruk (Teller), raised in Kifigan (Wales). Agunaat Atqaq was the daughter of Kimasuk (Josephine) and Kauwailak (Michael) Koweluk. She lived a robust, traditional life in Kifigan before moving to Signasuak (Nome) in the early 1950s. She embraced the subsistence lifestyle. Hunting, gathering, and Native food preparation and preservation were important focal points and essences of her life. Agunaat Atqaq enjoyed sharing her rich Inupiaq language and culture, often recounting tales of hunting, fishing and gathering from Wales, Mary's Igloo and the Nome area. She enjoyed sewing parkas, ubijhaat (kuspuks), sealskin slippers, mukluks, knitting gloves and socks, beading and embroidery. She won multiple awards for her kuspuk sewing skills. She received the Alaska Federation of Native's Cultural Bearer Award, and in 2019, the Alaska State Legislature recognized her with a heartfelt proclamation on her 90th birthday.
