Enrollment Update

A Historic Vote Expands Shareholder Enrollment

At the 2025 Annual Meeting, shareholders achieved a historic milestone for the corporation by approving the resolution to open enrollment for lineal descendants and missed enrollees. As a result, BSNC's Restated Articles of Incorporation were amended to allow issuance of Class C stock to lineal descendants of an original shareholder of BSNC born after December 18, 1971, as well as Class D stock to Natives alive on such date who were eligible for enrollment in BSNC, but did not enroll.

Message from the Chairman of the Board

Hello Fellow Shareholders,

On behalf of the Board of Directors, we hope you all are doing well and we send greetings to you and your family. As I write this, I cannot help but think of how proud we should all be of our Corporation. BSNC had an amazing year and the future is so bright for 2026. The Board continues to work hard for all shareholders near and far.

The benefits provided to shareholders continue to reach record levels, including annual dividend distributions, scholarships, bereavement assistance, AIH, Aurora Hotel and car rental discounts, and shareholder hire and engagement. Last quarter, the Board approved an increase in bereavement assistance to better support shareholders during times of need.

This past October, shareholders voted and approved the Open Enrollment resolution with 80% voting YES. This will allow descendants to enroll and receive 50 Class C shares, and we forecast to welcome approximately 9,000 shareholders to the BSNC family next year. We will be bigger and stronger when we work together for the future of the Corporation.

Staff are currently finalizing the process and preparing to launch enrollment by late summer. Descendants are encouraged to begin gathering required documents now to help ensure a smooth enrollment experience. Required documentation includes proof of legal name, date of birth, U.S. citizenship, and lineal descent from an original shareholder. Much of this information can be obtained from birth certificates for the applicant and their parents and grandparents. Additional details on required documents are available on our website at beringstraits.com/enroll. Please watch for future updates and further information.

We should all be proud of our Corporation—BSNC had an amazing year, and the future for 2026 is bright.

I am truly honored to serve as Board Chair, and it is a privilege for all of us to serve on the Board on behalf of our shareholders. Together with the management team, we will continue working hard to build a Corporation you can be proud of. We remember where we come from and remain deeply grateful for your continued support.

Quyaana and God Bless,

Robert Evans

The Agluktuk

In the early years following the passage of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, BSNC began connecting with its shareholders through one of its earliest communication tools—the Agluktuk newsletter. Agluktuk translates to “something that is written” in Inupiaq. The May 1973 issue marks one of the first editions of Agluktuk, published less than a year after BSNC was formed in 1972.

The Agluktuk served as a vital resource to share news with BSNC’s shareholders as the corporation navigated its formative years. The newsletters reported on annual meetings, Board updates, community news, and regional priorities during a time of tremendous change for Alaska Native people and the newly created corporations. The newsletters also reveal how deeply Our People shaped the Corporation’s direction. Elders, youth, and families are featured throughout the pages celebrating accomplishments, reporting on village events, and contributing important perspectives.

As part of an effort to preserve BSNC’s history, original issues of the Agluktuk were digitized and uploaded to beringstraits.com/agluktuk. These early newsletters are a valuable window into BSNC’s past—offering contemporary shareholders a glimpse at the challenges, milestones, and stories from decades ago. We invite readers to explore these newsletters and reflect on the vision, resilience, and leadership that continue to guide us.

These early newsletters capture the vision, resilience, and leadership that continue to guide BSNC today.

Do You Have a Valid Stock Will on File?

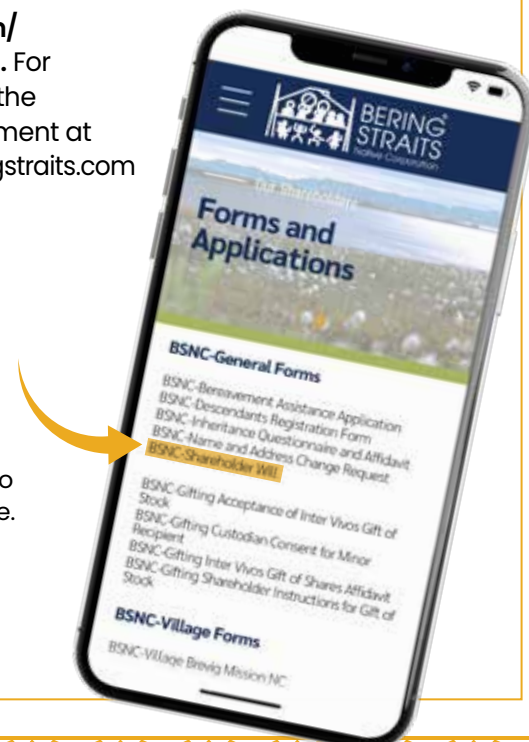

A stock will is a notarized document—meaning it is signed in front of a notary public who verifies your identity and witnesses your signature—that tells BSNC who should receive your Class A and Class B shares when you pass away. Without a valid stock will, your shares may be distributed under Alaska's intestate succession laws. Completing a valid stock will using the official BSNC form or through a valid will ensures you clearly designate your beneficiaries and protect your legacy.

To encourage shareholders to keep an updated will on file, BSNC holds a monthly $500 drawing for those who submit a completed stock will. Download the stock will form

SHAREHOLDER SPOTLIGHT

John Waghiyi, Jr.

BSNC is pleased to highlight talented shareholder and Elder John Waghiyi, Jr. Born in Savoonga, Alaska, to Reverends John Waghiyi, Sr. and Della Waghiyi, he and his wife of 51 years, Arlene, reside in Savoonga. Together, they have 11 children, seven of whom they adopted.

Waghiyi is skilled in carving, sewing, drumming, and dancing. He and his wife are widely recognized for their artistic, subsistence, and community contributions, with a deep commitment to sharing traditional practices. To revitalize drumming and dancing in their community, they founded the Savoonga Youth Drummers and Dancers, showcasing their dance and strong family collaboration across Alaska.

As a dedicated educator, Waghiyi has taught Yupik Language and Cultural History in the Bering Strait School District for over two decades. As an experienced whaling captain, he leads subsistence whaling efforts, harvesting bowhead whales and guiding his community through traditional hunts. At events, he proudly shares his cultural heritage through traditional dances, drumming, and songs passed through generations.

In 2025, BSNC nominated Waghiyi for the Alaska Federation of Natives Culture Bearer Award, and he was honored with Elder of the Year awards from both BSNC and Sitasuak. In 2017, Waghiyi joined the board of Integrational Arctic Ministries, supporting faith-based healing from intergenerational trauma among Alaska Native people. He also served as an officer on the Executive Committee of the Bering Sea Elders Group from 2023 to 2026.

Waghiyi emphasizes the importance of passing on traditional ways: "This is how we keep our culture alive. We pass it down the way it was given to us—by showing it, living it." – John Waghiyi, Jr.

"This internship has helped equip me for the workforce... my college years are coming to an end, and having this summer before my last year of school helped me understand what I'm getting into, because this is something I'll be doing for the rest of my life."

BSNC is helping prepare tomorrow's leaders for the workforce by providing paid internships and professional development training each summer to qualified shareholder and descendant students. Interns gain valuable work experience and skills by working with staff in their professional area of interest.

Internship positions are full-time (40 hours per week), and the internship is from May 18 to August 7. Kristin Ringstad BSNC's Career Pathways Series highlights the diverse jobs held by shareholders and descendants. The series raises awareness about career opportunities and the essential skills needed to succeed in these fields.

Shareholder Kristin Ringstad's journey into physical therapy is a story of resilience, community strength, and a deep commitment to giving back. She is the founder of Current Practice PT (currentpracticept.com), a practice specializing in aquatic physical therapy.

PERSONAL BACKGROUND

My name is Kristin Ringstad. My father was the late Eric Ringstad, and my grandmother, Sarah Ringstad, is the daughter of Holly Nayokpuk and Teddy Sockpick. Our family comes from Shishmaref, though I was born and raised in western Washington. My brother, Brandon Ringstad, and my aunt, Susan Ringstad Emery, are both notable artists.

CAREER JOURNEY

At age 16, my life changed dramatically when I fractured my spine in five places. I spent many months in physical therapy learning how to walk again and how to protect my spine. That experience set me on the path to becoming a physical therapist so I could help others regain movement and independence.

I earned a Bachelor of Science degree followed by a Doctor of Physical Therapy—a seven-year commitment. After graduation, I completed a three-month postdoctoral course to earn clinical competency in aquatic physical therapy. With several years of experience, I qualified to sit for the Pediatric and Medically Complex board-certified specialist exam. Before and during

Bering-Weston Joint Venture Provides Emergency Services Following Hurricane Helene

► BWJV crews work on emergency water pre-treatment systems in Asheville, NC, helping restore safe drinking water to the community following Hurricane Helene.

Bering-Weston Joint Venture (BWJV), a joint venture between BSNC company Bering Straits Global Innovations, LLC and Weston Solutions, Inc., provided emergency water pre-treatment services to the Asheville, NC, community following Hurricane Helene. Mudslides triggered by the hurricane caused the Bee Tree Reservoir, which supplies the William Debruhl Water Treatment Plant, to become highly turbid and noncompliant with drinking water standards, leaving thousands of residents without access to clean water.

To rapidly restore water to safe, potable standards, BWJV completed a design, including plans and specifications, for a Mobile Turbidity Reduction System in full compliance with federal, state, and local requirements. The turnkey solution included dissolved air flotation units, multimedia filters, chemical feed systems, high-density polyethylene piping, diesel-powered pumps, while managing civil construction, stormwater controls, and site assessments. The complex system was fully deployed in just three months, addressing urgent public health needs on an aggressive timeline.

The project successfully restored the community's access to safe drinking water, ensuring the health and well-being of residents and providing critical services during an emergency. Initiated under a United States Army Corps of Engineers contract, operations continue with a long-term commitment and the flexibility to serve the community's needs well into the future.

Career Pathways

school, I volunteered and shadowed at physical therapy clinics to deepen my understanding of the profession and the level of care expected of a skilled clinician.

BARRIERS ENCOUNTERED

One of the greatest challenges I faced was the lack of Indigenous women in medicine to look to for guidance. This led to many surprises along the way, including discovering that Alaska Native health is rarely studied in medicine and navigating the complexities of federal student loans. In my final year of graduate school, I also experienced overt racism from an instructor. I chose to stand my ground—not only for myself, but to help ensure I would be the last person treated that way at my university.

RESOURCES AND SUPPORT

My greatest resource has always been my community. BSNC supported me throughout my education, including scholarships that made my schooling possible. My community provided encouragement, prayers, food, and even help with everyday needs. My mother has been my biggest cheerleader, and I would not be where I am today without her support.

ADVICE FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

Ask for help when you need it, and don't be afraid to break your own trail. Use and love your community. Find the people who want to lift you up and let them. Believe in yourself enough to try new and challenging things, and if that feels hard, ask your community to believe in you until you can.

SMALL BUSINESS OWNERSHIP

I love being a small business owner because it allows me to help more people every day. Founding Current Practice has given me the opportunity to share aquatic physical therapy and my Inupiaq heritage with new patients, which has been an incredible honor. Learn more at currentpracticept.com.

KATILUTA

CULTURAL FESTIVAL

April 30–May 2

BSNC is thrilled to partner with other regional organizations to host the Katiluta Cultural Festival taking place April 30 to May 2, 2026 in Nome. Katiluta celebrates culture, connection, and community by bringing together families, Elders, and youth to share traditional dance, storytelling, artistry, Native foods, and intergenerational knowledge.

The festival honors the strength and resilience of our culture while creating space to learn from one another and celebrate the region's shared heritage. BSNC extends gratitude to our partners, including Kawerak, Inc. and Sitnasuak Native Corporation, as well as the volunteers and participants whose dedication makes this event possible. We look forward to celebrating together.
